

User Flow at Bloggermantherapy.com:

Landing Page: When you visit the website, you'll land on the homepage. The homepage provides an overview of the psychotherapist's services, qualifications, and a brief introduction.

About Section: The homepage includes an "About" section, where you can learn more about the psychotherapist's background, approach, and areas of expertise.

Services Offered: The website has a dedicated page that outlines the services offered by the psychotherapist. Here, you can find information about Gestalt and analytical-effective therapies.

Contact Page: To initiate contact with the psychotherapist, you can navigate to the "Contact" page. This page typically provides contact details, such as email address, phone number, social networks and work hours.

Contact Form Submission:

Contact Form: On the "Contact" page, you may find a contact form that allows you to submit your inquiry or request. The contact form asks your first and last name, email address, subject, and a message. You can fill in the required information and provide additional details about your specific needs or questions.

Submitting the Form: Once you've completed the form, click the submit button to send your message to the psychotherapist.

Communication: The psychotherapist will receive your message via the contact form and will typically respond to your inquiry using the provided email. The communication process will then continue through email discussions.

Booking Process:

Booking Page: The website has a dedicated "Book Now" page that allows you to schedule an online consultation. You can navigate to this page through the website's main menu (Book online).

Selecting Date and Time: On the booking page, you'll typically see a calendar where you can select a date and time slot for your online consultation. The available dates and times will depend on the psychotherapist's schedule.

Providing Information: After selecting a suitable date and time, you'll be asked to provide your name, contact information and a message (this may include a brief description of the reason for seeking therapy or any specific requirements).

Confirmation and Payment: Once you've provided the necessary information, you receive a confirmation message displaying the details of your booking and pay a fixed price in person for the services selected.

Email Confirmation: After completing the booking process, you should receive an email confirmation containing the details of your scheduled online consultation, including the date, time, and any instructions or requirements.